First and foremost, thank you Lord for the rain.

We had a great turnout for the Fourth of July scramble. And sign-up sheets are full for the Night Golf. We appreciate your support joining us for the scrambles, it's a good way to get to know people and have a lot of fun. Just wanna quickly say if you didn't see my picture on Lake Tanglewood Bulletin board we do have rattlesnakes in our area, so please be careful and watch where you step. The rattlesnake that I saw on our driving range was in mowed short grass, and seemed ok being exposed. Unfortunately it met its demise with a severe case of three wood poisoning.

Our Club Championship is scheduled for August 22nd and Labor Day scramble is scheduled September 7th.

Attached is the results of our 4th of July scramble. Joey Parsons team donated their winnings back to LTGA. ( thanks)

In closing I want to tell you that I will not be serving as president after this year. I've been a part of the leadership for the Golf Association for 8 years and I feel it's time for some fresh leadership. There's not a lot of duties involved, setting up and managing scrambles and working to turn the funds acquired to improve our golf course. I would encourage anyone who would be interested in joining the executive team of the LTGA contact me and let's talk.

Thanks again.

Roger Turner.

Happy August!

LAKE TANGLEWOOD ANGLERS CLUB

52 young anglers kept Mom and Dad busy baiting and taking fish off in the 3rd annual Kid's Fishing Tournament last Saturday. With the abundance of catfish, crappie, bass and bluegill perch in the lake, the kid's were wearing out line and hooks! Everyone took home a prize and a ribbon.

Many thanks to Dr. Jim Rogers, Ricky Sharp, Vance Hall, Pak-A Sak, Twin Willows Bait and Tackle store, LSIOT, Harbor point Restaurant, Cabela's of Lubbock, ANB, Lake Tanglewood Fire Department, Gypsy's Ice Castle and Lake Tanglewood Angler's Club and the Lake Tanglewood Lion's Club.
